ABSTRACT

Compiled from responses to a questionnaire by the 98 academic research library members and 12 nonuniversity members of the Association of Research Libraries, these 1978-79 statistics provide data on their collections, interlibrary loan programs, expenditures, microform holdings, and personnel, as well as university enrollments and doctoral programs. University libraries are rank-ordered in 14 different categories: (1) volumes in library, (2) gross number of volumes added, (3) microform holdings, (4) current serials, (5) professional staff, (6) nonprofessional staff, (7) total staff, (8) materials expenditures, (9) materials and binding expenditures, (10) salaries and wages expenditures, (11) total operating expenditures, (12) total items loaned, (13) total items borrowed, and (14) current serials expenditures. Four trends are noted from examination of the media figures for university library members: ARL libraries have increased only slightly in size since 1977-78: in 1978-79, volumes added rose four percent while expenditures rose 11 percent: serials expenditures rose at a greater rate than inflation, increasing 16.3 percent, and outlays for serials accounted for 54 percent of expenditures for materials: and the median ratio of items loaned to items borrowed remained at 2.4:1, a ratio that has been stable in ARL libraries over the past several years. The questionnaire is included. (JD)

GUIDE TO LIBRARY CODE NUMBERS

The institutions listed below are the 110 institutions which were members of the ARL in 1979. Each has been assigned a code number which has been used on the charts on pages 2-11 in place of the names of the institutions. (See columns labeled "Library Code No." to the left of columns 1 and 12). Numbers 1-98 have been used to designate the 98 university library members of the Association. Numbers 99-110 designate the 12 nonuniversity members.

GUIDE TO LIBRARY CODE NUMBERS

INTRODUCTION

The ARL Statistics for 1978-79 is compiled from the data of 110 research libraries, including five new ARL member libraries: University of Guelph, University of California at Riverside, University of New Mexico, York University, and Newberry Library. Due to this increase in the number of institutions covered, it is not possible to compare total figures for 1978-79 with totals from previous years.* However, examination of the 1978-79 median figures for university library members reveals the following trends:

- ARL academic libraries have increased only slightly in size since 1977-78: volumes held have increased only 2% and the size of staffs by only .8%. This slow growth has been paralleled by a 2.9% increase in operating expenditures and a slightly higher, 3.6%, increase in expenditures for salaries and wages. Salaries and wages continue to account for approximately 56% of total operating expense.

- In 1978-79, volumes added rose by 4%, bringing the median figure up to that reported in 1976-77 (approximately 74,000) after a decline in 1977-78. At the same time, materials expenditures rose 11%. As in 1977-78, materials expenditures accounted for approximately 30% of total operating expenses.

- In contrast to other expenditures, serials expenditures rose at a rate greater than that of inflation, increasing 16.3%, while the median number of current serials in ARL academic libraries was actually .9% lower than in 1977-78. Outlays for serials accounted for 54% of expenditures for materials.

- Despite striking changes in interlibrary loan activity in several member libraries, the median ratio of items loaned to items borrowed remained at 2.4:1, a ratio which has been stable in ARL academic libraries over the past several years.

The ARL Statistics provides an overview of the size and expenditures of large research libraries in North America. The Rank Order Tables are particularly useful for describing a range and distribution pattern for certain variables. However, the Statistics are weakest when used to compare one institution with another for several reasons, including: 1) differing interpretations of the information requested reduce the comparability of the data in many categories; 2) regional differences in cost of living affect expenditures; 3) Canadian dollars have not been discounted; 4) funds and staff for special projects and grants are included in some of the figures. While many of the discrepancies are clarified by footnotes, they do affect the validity of the rankings shown on pages 22-24.

In comparing any individual library to ARL medians or to other ARL institutions, evaluations must be made within the context of local goals and characteristics. The tables presented in this publication are in no way intended to imply qualitative evaluations of the institutions described.

*Totals are also sometimes inaccurate because of the unavailability of some figures in several categories.

ANALYSIS OF SELECTED VARIABLES OF UNIVERSITY LIBRARIES

The percentages and ratios below are intended to summarize the basic data in the ARL statistical charts. The high, median, and low figures indicate the range as well as the midpoint for ARL's 98 university library members.

Category	High	Median	Low
1. Professional Staff as percent of Total Staff	42	25	16
2. Nonprofessional Staff as percent of Total Staff	73	52	27
3. Student Assistant Staff as percent of Total Staff	49	21	7
4. Ratio of Professional to Non-professional Staff (excluding student assistants)	1:1	0.5:1	0.23:1
5. Ratio of Items Loaned to Items Borrowed	21:1	2.4:1	.3:1
6. Materials Expenditures as percent of Total Operating Expenditures	57	31	21
7. Serials Expenditures as percent of Materials Expenditures	80	54	27
8. Salary and Wage Expenditures as percent of Total Operating Expenditures	72	56	34
9. Ratio of Salary and Wage Expenditures to Materials Expenditures	3.4:1	1.9:1	0.6:1

Median figures are useful indicators when there is a wide dispersion in a distribution. Because of the characteristic of the mean as a "balance point," a few very high or low scores may sometimes pull the mean away from the actual point at which values cluster. As the measure of central tendency which focuses on the midpoint in a distribution, medians are preferable for describing ARL libraries.

SUMMARY OF RANK ORDER TABLES FOR UNIVERSITY LIBRARIES

The table below presents the rank for each university library in each of the fourteen categories for which rank order tables are prepared. As a further indication of the relative position of each institution, note that, in the individual rank order tables on the following pages, "group codes" are used. This is done because, in a number of cases, there is a relatively insignificant difference between two institutions which are nevertheless given two different rankings. The "coarser" ranking provided by clustering institutions into groups (based upon ranges) more realistically describes a library's relative standing.

The table numbers in the chart below refer to the following categories:

RANK ORDER TABLE 3: MICROFORM HOLDINGS

The grouping of institutions below is done because, in a number of cases, there is a relatively insignificant difference between two institutions, which are nevertheless given two different rankings. In order to provide a "coarser" ranking, the institutions are thus clustered into groups according to the ranges specified here.

RANK ORDER TABLE 12: TOTAL ITEMS LOANED

The grouping of institutions below is done because, in a number of cases, there is a relatively insignificant difference between two institutions, which are nevertheless given two different rankings. ARL STATISTICS 1978-79

Instructions for Completion of the Questionnaire

1. Definitions of the statistical categories used in this questionnaire can be found in Library Statistics: A Handbook of Concepts, Definitions and Terminology (Chicago: American Library Association, 1966).

2. All figures should be rounded to the nearest whole number.

3. Question 1-5. Use the ALA definition for "Volume" as noted in instruction 1 above. Include duplicates and bound volumes of periodicals. Exclude microforms, nonprint materials, uncataloged items, and government documents unless cataloged. If any of these items must be included, please provide an explanation in footnote 7 on p. 3 of the questionnaire.

4. Question 6. Include duplicate subscriptions. Because of the number of questions raised regarding the counting of serials, we call to your attention the definition to be used for this survey.

   > Publications constituting one issue in a continuous series under the same title published at regular or irregular intervals, over an indefinite period, individual issues in the series being numbered consecutively or each issue being dated. Newspapers as well as publications appearing annually or less frequently are included in the definition.

5. Questions 12-15 - Personnel. All figures should be rounded to the nearest whole number. Report the number of staff in filled positions, or positions which are only temporarily vacant. The number of FTE staff should be determined on the basis of the length of the work week in the reporting library.

6. Question 12. Since the criteria for determining professional status vary among libraries, there is no attempt to define the term "professional." Each library should report those staff members it considers professional, including, when appropriate, staff who are not librarians in the strict sense of the term, such as computer experts, systems analysts, budget officers, etc.

7. Questions 16-22 - Expenditures. Report all expenditures, regardless of whether the funds come from the regular library budget or from special funds, such as research grants. Include federal funds for work study students.

8. Question 21. Exclude expenditures for buildings and maintenance, and for fringe benefits.

9. Question 23. Please note that only the number of Ph.D. degrees awarded are to be counted. Statistics on all other advanced degrees (e.g., D.Ed., D.P.A., M.D., J.D.) are not required for this survey. If you are unable to provide a figure for Ph.D.s only, please note this in footnote 7 on p. 3 of the questionnaire.
